You did not leave any card with the Laupsaenus stater but I think it is the coin sold you Dec. 13, 1923 for $275, from Spink and marked ex. Weber Coll. Will you let me know if this is correct so that I

Would you care to have me send any

Dear Mr. Garrett

I am enclosing a letter rec'd recently from Mr. Forrer which I would have sent you before but I wanted to talk the matter over with Mr. Newell. His idea and mine also is that you should make your claim direct to Naville & Co. as you will note in the terms of the sale they "guarantee the authenticity of the coins". I am sailing on the Aquitania Friday and will be glad to instruct Mr. Forrer to send the coin to Geneva if you wish. The other piece I will make some settlement of in London, in ^{any} event you will have full credit for same.

Dear Mr. Garrett

I have just received word from Spink that they are willing to reimburse you for the Syracuse tetradrachm. They write me that Naville Co. have agreed to make it good but I doubt this and I think if you would agree to take a credit instead of a cash settlement it would be a kindness to them and not represent a complete loss. Will you kindly advise Spink the exact cost to you as they seem a little hazy about Swiss exchange at that time.

In regard to the Lampsacus stater, I located a splendid specimen in England with a good pedigree which I can get for £150 which is about the last auction record.

Dear Mr. Raymond:-

I am sorry I have not been able to answer your letter of May 15th sooner but I have been so busy with other things that I have hardly looked at my coins for some months.

I have had a letter from Spink & Son in which they placed to my credit in repayment of the Syracuse tetradrachm the sum of £514. I have written them a letter of which I enclose a copy.

I am leaving for Europe and will not be back until October so it will not be possible for me to look over any coins until then.

Dear Sirs:-

I have your letter of May 22nd and am very glad that you have been able to arrange the matter of the Syracuse tetradrachm. I shall be glad to leave the sum due in reimbursement to my credit with you against any purchases I may make from you with the understanding that I may withdraw whatever balance may be on hand at any time after a year from now.

I should be much obliged, however, if you would check up your calculations as they do not agree with mine as to the sum paid for the tetradrachm in question. I enclose your original bill from which you will see that the coin sold for 11,500 Swiss Francs to which must be added 10% and 5%, making a total of 13,225 Swiss Francs, which at the then rate of exchange of 24.45 would make £540.17.11, to which amount should be debited the £102.10 for the coins just purchased from you, leaving a balance of £438.07.11.

I expect to be in London later in the year and shall give myself the pleasure of coming in to see you.

Dear Mr. Garrett

I am very sorry to report that it has been impossible to secure any of the 1930 Coins for you. The 1, 5, 10 + 25 Cent pieces and 10 + 20 Dollar pieces were struck but only the cents released. These coins can only be secured by a special order from the Secretary of the Treasury. So I presume if you will write a personal letter to him that the coins will be forthcoming.

Wayte Raymond, Esq.,
483 Park Ave.,
New York, N.Y.

Dear Mr. Raymond:-

Mr. Howland Wood sent me the other day in answer to a request of mine a cast of the Good Samaritan Shilling, and said "the coin is owned by the William Byrd Estate, which Wayte Raymond knows all about."

There are a few important types of Colonial coins not in my collection and I am trying at least to secure casts of them. I do not know whether the Good Samaritan Shilling is for sale, but I thought I would write about it and at the same time send you a list of the coins of which I want casts and see if you could help me locate them. They are as follows:

Good Samaritan Shilling
Non Dependens Token
New England Stiver Maryland Penny of 1659 (which I believe is in the Mint)
New England Elephant Token of 1694

Massachusetts Linetree Copper of 1776 (In the Appleton Collection in the Massachusetts Historical Soc.) Pattern Cent of 1776 which Dr. Wood exhibited at the Numismatic Society in 1914.
Silver Pattern of first U.S. Dollar by Jacob Perkins of Newburyport
(Crosby page 332)

The following New Jersey Cents:-
Mint numbers 1786 10-H, 11-G, 15-U; 1787 35-I, 79-cc and 81

In regard to some of these I have already written the secretary of the Massachusetts and of the New Jersey Historical Societies, but I am not sure that they have them or that they would permit casts to be made. If you can help me out in this I should very much appreciate it.

I am sailing on Tuesday for Rome. If you have any information to give me please address it to me there.

With best wishes to you for the New

You asked me some time ago in regard to the Jacob Perkins dollars. Until quite recently the only specimen known was the shell from the Stickney Coll. now owned by W.H. Woodin. I was fortunate enough to discover in an old Phila Collection a solid specimen of this piece which I enclose together with an hitherto unknown pattern of 1819 which compare with the pattern cent of 1818. all of these pieces are undoubtedly made by Perkins machine.

Dear Mr. Raymond:

I have just looked over the Catalogue of the Morgenthau sale to take place October eighteenth. Although I have not been buying coins lately, there are a few items in this sale that I may want to bid on, and I wonder if you would handle my commissions for me.

The items in which I am interested are #266 Humbert Pattern Fifty Dollars, and the two Pacific Company Patterns #275 and #276. Is #282 Wase, Molitar, Ten Dollars, the large or the small head?

I should be glad if you would let me have your opinion as to fair bids on these pieces and if you would also send me a copy of Scott's new catalogue of early American coins, mentioned on page 5 of the sales catalogue.

Dear Mr. Raymond:-

I am surprised and rather disconcerted by the valuations put by you on the California patterns in which I am interested. I do not feel that I can possibly go to such limits and I hope very much that the bidding will permit me to get them at a lower price.

The piece I am particularly interested in to complete my set of 450. pieces and patterns is No. 266 - pattern of an octagonal 450. piece. Because I know this ought to be in my collection I will go up to $600. for it. The other two pieces Nos. 275 and 276 are less important to me, but I am willing to go up to $300. for No. 275 and $200. for No. 276 if necessary to get them.

I shall be very much obliged if you would execute these bills for me.

Oct. 14, 1933.

Dear Mr. Garrett

Your favor of the 13th inst. rec'd and I will do the best I can with your bids.
In case you should get the first lot under your limit do you want to raise bids on following lots or if I feel that it would not be possible to get 275 and 276 do you wish to bid any more on 266? It may be possible for me to tell before the sale what the prospects are. Have you overlooked lot 242? This is the only Bechtler trial piece I have seen and a different die from the gold one.

Yours very truly
Wayte Raymond

Dear Mr. Raymond:-

In answer to your letter of October 14th I would rather not raise my bids on any of the pieces. I had overlooked lot No. 242 - the Bechtler trial piece - but I should like to have it if it could be gotten for a reasonable price.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Raymond:-

Thanks very much for executing my order at the Morganthau Sale. The pieces arrived in good condition and I enclose my check. I am particularly glad to get the Humbert piece which, as far as I know, makes my collection of the California slugs, as well as patterns of them, complete.

I lack two of Adams numbers, namely: and , but I have never known of these pieces coming up for sale, and I wonder whether Adams did not make a mistake in listing them. If you know anything about this I should be very glad to hear what you have to say.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Garrett

Am afraid I am rather dilatory in answering your last letter enclosing check for Morgenthau sale. Unless the plugs you mention are in the Newcomer bell. am inclined to think they do not exist. He might be able to tell you.

I have recently acquired a Shults 5 dollar piece and am wondering if you have it. The last specimen sold at auction brought $3700 (in 1929) but my price for this one is $1500 - Every letter shows on the coronet, which is unusual.

Dear Mr. Raymond:-

Referring to your letter of the 23rd I am glad to say that I already have the Shults five dollar piece in my collection.

I have recently put on exhibition some of my early Roman bronzes and I should like very much to complete the set of first Roman AS series of which I lack only the Uncia (Suydenhan #7). If you could find one preferably with a good patina I should like very much to consider buying it.

Dear Mr. Garrett

Your letter recd and while I do not have the bronze you mention will make an effort to locate a specimen for you. Would you care to see several rare Greek coins, bought for my stock when times were better? I would like very much to clear these pieces at cost or lower as I do not find it profitable to attempt to carry a stock of such coins. They are all pieces of considerable interest.

Mr. Wayte Raymond,

Dear Mr. Raymond:

I enclose my check in payment of the Counterfeit British and Commemorative Coins.

To complete my set of Commemoratives,
I need two more of the OREGON pieces, namely, those dated 1926, of the Philadelphia and San Francisco mints.

I have checked off my catalogue
with your list of types of United States coins, and I believe there is only one type, as distinguished from the die variety, missing from my collection, namely the QUARTER DOLLAR from 1932 with the HEAD OF WASHINGTON. If you have this in uncirculated, or proof condition, I should like to have them of all three mints, and if there are any new types issued since your lists were published, I should like to have them too.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Garrett

I have recently acquired the excessively rare Bechtler quarter eagle as per enclosed illustration. To the best of my knowledge there are only 3 specimens known of this coin. A poor one in the Brand Coll., a fine one which I sold Col. Green for $2200- in 1928 and this specimen for which I ask $1200- Do you think you would be interested?
